CATALOGUE B

JONES FURNITURE COMPANY, SYRACUSE, NEW YORK

THIS catalogue shows high grade furniture only. The prices are all lower than any ever before quoted for goods of equal value. And in many cases goods of equal value have never been produced at any price. If any particular piece of furniture should seem too high-priced it will certainly be because our illustration and description fail to give you a clear idea of its intrinsic merits. If any particular piece should seem too cheap to be good, you may depend upon it that the cheapness is due wholly to the economy in manufacture, and the elimination of all middlemen's profits and not to any lack of desirable qualities in the article.

ON APPROVAL We want to prove the accuracy of our exceedingly strong claims by sending you some furniture on approval. Absolutely everything we have will bear the most critical examination. Anything may be returned at our expense if not found exactly as represented, if not found better than can be purchased elsewhere at an equal price. And any money sent us will be returned upon the return of our goods. We assume all risk. We ask no one to buy a pig in a poke. We depend wholly upon the intrinsic merits of our goods.

OUR FIELD Our primary aim is to supply better furniture than can be found in retail stores. The fact that our prices are low is merely incidental. We are after the trade of the fastidious people. All retail stores carry little or nothing aside from "bargain" goods. They deal with the masses. They do not find it profitable to carry complete lines of the better class of goods as there are but comparatively few people in each city who would buy them. But it is a different proposition with us. The whole country is our field. Selling by mail only makes the few people in one place just as accessible as the few in another place. With all the people in the country who belong to this particular class as possible customers, we have practically an unlimited field, and there is no more reason why we should also sell the bargain counter grade of furniture than there is why we should add ferry boats and soap and patent medicines to our stock in trade. We call especial attention to the graceful designs, the vertical veneers, the rounded corners, and other more or less distinctive features. Everything we make is honestly made all the way through. Much furniture that has nearly as good an external appearance as ours is not put together one-half so well.

CO-OPERATION We have our own factory (Nos. 224, 226, 228 and 230 West Onondaga Street) and manufacture a large share of the goods we sell.

But, in order to have our line absolutely complete, we have contracted with a number of other manufacturers to make certain lines. This we have been able to do to excellent advantage. Our contracts being enormous, we practically control these other factories. They turn out our work under our personal supervision. They are virtually additions to our own big factory. Our connection is of such a nature that we can retail the output of these factories as cheaply as the owners could—as cheaply as if we were the sole owners. We make this explanation so that you will not confound us with mail order jobbers, or manufacturers' agents, or with any other furniture concern of any kind. No other company in America is doing exactly the kind and class of furniture business that we are doing.

LOW PRICES We have ample capital, and buy raw material in enormous quantities, and manufacture on a large scale. We have the most modern and highest grade machinery obtainable. We employ no traveling salesmen and have no retail store. We sell by mail only. We save for our customers the retailer's profit, the jobber's profit, and, in many cases, a part of the manufacturer's profit. These are the principal reasons why our prices are low. And they are uniformly low. In no case do we cut below cost to attract attention and then make up by charging extra large profits on other goods. You pay us just the same small percentage of profit whether you spend ten dollars or one hundred dollars with us. We have in our employ the best designers in America. We create new styles. Most of our furniture is distinctive. It cannot be duplicated anywhere else at any price.

FINISH We excel other manufacturers not only in the substantial manner in which our goods are put together, but in the matter of finish. And this is a very important matter. Our gloss finish is the best kind of a gloss finish. It is the result of careful sanding, polishing, varnishing with the best varnishes, and with the right kind of a surface on the wood to start with. Our gloss finish is better than what some manufacturers would call a "polish finish." For many kinds of furniture it is as good as most people care for. Our hand polished piano finish is simply the result of an elaborate polishing process after the gloss finish stage has been reached. The varnished surface is rubbed first with pumice stone and water or oil and then with rotten stone—the finest substance known for this purpose. All this rubbing is done with a man's bare hand's. After this a special preparation is used to bring out the perfect piano finish. All drawers in our better line of tables and cases are finished inside. All trimmings are made of cast brass—and thoroughly well made. No sham, hollow stamped sheet brass is used even on our cheapest Furniture.

DISTINCTIVE
FEATURE The vertical veneer on many pieces is distinctive and especially attractive. This is simply a thin veneer, with the grains running up and down, glued on to the frame. Of course, where the grain of the veneer is vertical, the grain of the wood to which it is glued is horizontal. If warping were possible in unveneered goods, this would be an effective remedy, but all of our stock is so well seasoned as to make warping out of the question. We mention this fact simply to show that the vertical veneer from a mechanical standpoint is theoretically an advantage and not in any respect a disadvantage. The quality of the glue we use, and the care with which the glueing is done, make it impossible for the veneer to peel off or come loose and bulge in spots, as is often the case in inferior grades of veneered goods. A large share of the oak we use is quarter sawed—sawed so as to show the silver grain.

AN INCOMPLETE
CATALOGUE This catalogue is incomplete. We never expect to issue one that is otherwise. No progressive firm can. We are continually bringing out new designs, and a catalogue that would be complete to day might be incomplete to-morrow, or next week, or before you would send for it. Therefore, in case you want something not mentioned here, we do not want you to assume that we cannot furnish it. Whatever you want, is just what we want to send you, on approval, provided you want something that is strictly high-grade. If you want something you have read about, or heard about, or seen at your neighbor's, just describe it to us and we will endeavor to furnish you with an illustration of some sort (perhaps a photograph) and quote you a price upon it.

CASH We do a strictly cash business. That is the only equitable method. It avoids losses, and we give our customers the benefit of what we thus save.

FREIGHT When the money accompanies the order we prepay the freight to all points east of the Mississippi River and north of the Carolinas. Shipments to points beyond are on an equally liberal basis. Let us have a trial order.

Yours very truly,

No. 3003

We especially recommend this Desk to those wanting a really good desk, at a very moderate price.

It is built of plain oak, finished golden and is hand rubbed and polished. The writing bed is built up stock, it has extension slides, is casted, and the interior arrangement of shelves, drawers, pigeon-holes, etc., is very ample and complete.

From a retail dealer would be considered cheap at 40 to 50% more than our prices.

We make this pattern in three sizes as follows:

No. 3003—60 in. long, 35 in. wide, 50 in. high, $32.00

" 3004—54 " " 35 " " 50 " " 29.50

No. 3008

This Desk is one that the possessor may well feel proud of. It is made in Quarter sawed white oak, has built up writing bed, raised panels all around, hand rubbed and polished, ample drawer room, and large drawer in knee space.

Interior arrangement is very complete, and a very fine all around desk. Is well castered—and at a retail store would be considered cheap at 50% above our price.

No. 3013

This desk is quite similar to No. 3008, being made of Quarter sawed white oak, having built up writing bed, raised panels all around, finished in Golden Oak, hand rubbed and polished.

Has large drawer capacity, with extra drawer in knee space, extension slides, well arranged interior with plenty of drawers, pigeon-holes, etc.

We make this pattern in five sizes and they are all exceptionally good value, being fully 50% cheaper than a desk of equal value could be procured from a retail dealer.

No. 3018

This is one of our best patterns and one that is fine enough for the most critical.

We make this desk of selected quarter sawed white oak, built up writing bed, raised panels all around, finished Golden, hand rubbed and polished.

Has eight large roomy drawers and extra large drawer in knee space. The interior is most admirably arranged, and has ample drawers, pigeon holes, etc. And is a perfect piece of furniture in every way—and if its equal could be found in retail stores at all it would bring from 50 to 75% more than our price.

This desk is made in five sizes as follows:

No. 100—PATENT ADJUSTABLE GO-CART

This is the most perfect combination of carriage and cart ever invented.

Its construction is simple, working easily and perfectly at all times. Lowering the back raises the front, which locks automatically. The front is well adapted to holding in the robes and is a very convenient place for carrying parcels.

When reclined this cart measures 42 inches in length, and is good proportion; is very easily handled over cross walks, and when not in use it occupies only about half the room of any ordinary carriage.

All carts are equipped with fixtures for parasol, straps and brake without extra charge.

The pattern shown above possesses all the advantages of a more expensive cart at a very low price.
